

WHERE DELIVERANCE MEETS DISCIPLESHIP.

Sharon Fincannon has ministered in deliverance and inner healing for more than 30 years, helping individuals experience freedom, restoration, and deeper intimacy with Christ.

Her training began in 1994 at a Virginia church widely respected for its deliverance ministry, including work with former satanists. There, Sharon received extensive biblical and practical training through Derek Prince and Bob Mumford resources, international pastoral leadership, and hands-on ministry as part of the church's deliverance team. She later expanded her training through A More Excellent Way by Dr. Henry Wright and went on to serve for several years with a church in the Atlanta area, assisting with annual deliverance seminars, prayer ministry, and teaching on depression.

Sharon has also discipled women for decades, leading Bible studies and mentoring women across various settings, including the entertainment industry. Her professional background as a paralegal and law office manager uniquely informs her understanding of spiritual authority and prayer.

Sharon ministers with clarity, discernment, and compassion, helping people move from bondage into lasting freedom.

TOPICS I SPEAK ON

Deliverance Doesn't Have to Be Weird

Deliverance ministry can seem intimidating or mysterious, but it's meant to be practical, biblical, and life-giving. In this session, Sharon demystifies deliverance, showing how anyone can walk in freedom and authority in Christ—without fear or superstition.

Breaking Generational Curses: Freedom for You and Your Family

Patterns of sin, fear, and strongholds can echo across generations, leaving spiritual and emotional burdens. Sharon teaches how to recognize and break these cycles through prayer, inner healing, and the authority Jesus gives every believer.

Freedom in Christ: Living Beyond Bondage

From habits, addictions, and oppression to fear and shame, we often live under invisible chains. This session invites listeners to experience true spiritual, emotional, and relational freedom as Sharon teaches how God's power intersects with everyday life.

Spiritual Warfare Made Practical

Satan is real—but so is the authority we have in Christ. Sharon equips audiences to recognize the unseen battles around them and provides clear, actionable tools for walking victoriously in God's power.

Discipleship That Transforms

True discipleship isn't about information—it's about transformation. Sharon explores how mentoring, prayer, and walking alongside others can cultivate spiritual maturity and freedom in both mentor and disciple.

The Heart of Deliverance: Healing, Restoration, and Hope

Deliverance isn't only about confronting darkness—it's about revealing God's light. Sharon shows how deliverance ministry brings holistic healing, restores hope, and reconnects believers with God's love and purpose.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

Deborah Johnson - Open Prayer Spaces

We strive to live our lives as worthy Christ followers, only to be caught in our own web of lies, which we believe about ourselves, which leads us down paths of bad choices and destructive thought patterns. If you long to be a better version of yourself, Sharon Fincannon, wife, mother, grandmother, friend, and renowned deliverance minister, will lead you toward that sweet freedom in Christ. With fresh vulnerability and laugh-out-loud humor, Sharon will speak truth to the lies that haunt you, causing you worry and addiction. She will teach you to replace false beliefs with God's life-giving truth. Enjoy the ride to a fresh Holy Spirit anointing of fire and victorious freedom in Christ alone. Sharon's heart for the Lord will leave you dancing with joy.

Abigail Holt-Jennings (Counselor, Author, & Minister) - www.girlofhope.com

Sharon Fincannon is truly one of a kind. Her insight, discernment, and pursuit of the Lord cause her to help others find freedom and healing in their own dark night of the soul.

With no judgment, she carries Heaven's hope for the most challenging of situations and seeks to hear the Lord on behalf of anyone who comes to her for help.

She is constantly thinking of others and how to help them draw closer to the Lord and find freedom in Him, breaking their own chains spiritually, emotionally, and relationally, enabling them to restore connection with the Creator, and Lover of their soul.

To know her is to love her, and I am so honored to be her comrade in the Faith. She has been beautifully and victoriously refined by life's fires and helps others discover the FOURTH MAN in their own 🔥.
